Using Your Senses

CONTENTS

Think About . . .

Our Amazing Senses .......................... 2 Sight .......................................... 4 Hearing ...................................... 6 Touch ........................................ 8 Smell ......................................... 10 Taste ......................................... 12

People in Science

A Veterinarian .............................. 13

Did You Know?

About Braille .............................. 14
About American Sign Language .......... 15

Glossary ..................................... 16 auditory nerve nerve that carries information from the ear to the brain brain part of the body that gets information from the senses ear canal tube that leads from the outer ear to the inner ear eardrum part of the ear that vibrates from a sound ear flap part of the ear we can see hearing sense that lets us observe sound inner ear tiny coiled tube in the ear iris colored part of the eye that controls the size of the pupil lens part of the eye that focuses light nasal cavity inside part of the nose where smells are sensed nerve fiber that carries information to the brain nostrils holes on the outside of the nose olfactory nerve nerve that carries information from the nose to the brain optic nerve nerve that carries information from the eye to the brain pitch how high or low a sound is pupil hole that lets light into the eye retina back part of the eye senses five ways we get information about the world sight sense that lets us observe light smell sense that lets us observe scents sound what we hear taste sense that lets us observe flavors taste buds bumps, mostly on the tongue, that sense flavors texture how something feels touch sense that lets us feel vibrate to move back and forth very fast volume how loud or soft a sound is